Background: On October 22, the Planning Commission is scheduled for a work session to revisit the residential zoning policy from the Complete Neighborhoods & Housing action area of the Comprehensive Plan. They will review the 1994 policy, the revised policy presented at the July 9 Planning Commission hearing, and alternatives to the revised policy, prior to the City Council's 11/20 preliminary hearing on Complete Neighborhoods & Housing goals and policies.

The Comprehensive Plan CAC occasionally forms work groups to provide additional review of drafts in progress. The purpose of this work group is to review and provide feedback to staff on draft policy alternatives, prior to the Planning Commission work session. The work group provides feedback to staff, but does not make an official recommendation to the Commission or the full CAC. The work group is made up of the Planning Commission liaison to the CAC, along with three members from the CAC's Economic Vitality (Goal 9) and Complete Neighborhoods and Housing (Goal 10) work group, which met in 2011 to advise staff on the Housing Needs Analysis and Economic Opportunities Analysis.
